Visiting the Exhibition

The exhibition will be open to the public from Monday 20th February to Saturday 8th April. Admission is free
Opening times are:
- Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays: 11am – 4pm
- Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays: 11am – 6pm
- And for an extra hour before the evening talks.

Refreshments will be served on Saturdays and at 7pm before the Lent Conversations evening talks.

The exhibition of school student artwork will be open in the undercroft hall at Victoria MC.

Guided groups of school students are welcome—by contacting vicmethevents@gmail.com

Other group visits can also be arranged in advance.

Churches Together in Clifton, Cotham & Redland bring you a series of talks based at Victoria Methodist Church and explore the ‘Articles of Faith’ exhibition of the Methodist Modern Art Collection.

The exhibition and all talks are at Victoria Methodist Church, 1A White ladies Rd BS8 1NU (next to the RWA) unless stated.

For booking information, exhibition opening times and other events see:

- www.facebook.com/VicMethodistArticlesOfFaith
- www.methodist.org.uk/artcollection
- www.vic-methodist-bristol.org.uk

Or email: lentconversations@gmail.com

And - Eventbrite - search events for Bristol in Lent
Unique Opportunity

From 20th February to 8th April 2023 thirty paintings from the Methodist Modern Art Collection will be exhibited in Bristol along with artefacts from various faith traditions.

The exhibition includes works by Graham Sutherland, Elisabeth Frink, Ceri Richards, Maggi Hambling and many other renowned artists.

Entitled ‘Articles of Faith – Where our paths meet’ the exhibition will explore themes that resonate with all faiths and none.

The themes are: compassion and service, hope, hospitality, justice and peace, life and death, relationship and mystery, suffering, and text and story.